Be specific.

6. This means you are “the” leader for the project - not a Jr. Leader or assistant. In order to count, you must be listed on the club’s leader list that was turned into the Extension Office (or added at a later date) and must have held at least 2 project meetings.

7. This means that you were the “Jr. Leader” or assistant for a project. There was another leader that you assisted. You do not have to be enrolled in leadership for this to count or be listed on the club’s leader list.

18. This means your name should have appeared in the previous year’s Achievement Banquet program as either the county champion or the blue award winner for a project. This is based on your record books, not exhibits at the fair. Honorable mention does not count.

19. This must be on your 4-H work, meaning, a presentation about a project you are enrolled in, a fundraiser, promoting 4-H or an event, or a service project you are working with. 22. Activities that you could put here include: Discovery Days, Youth Leadership Forum, Horse Panorama, or 4-H Ambassador Training. Must have taught or co-taught the session. This is much more than just attending the conference.

23. This really only applies to livestock. Must be at a state, regional or national show. You must have been there in person to exhibit, not just sent livestock.
